LIAT cuts staff and suspends passenger services

LIAT has advised that it will suspend all passenger services from April 4, 2020 for a period of 14 days “in the first instance” due to COVID-19. The airline said it will only operate charters and cargo flights during this period. CEO, Julie Reifer Jones explained that the imposition of travel bans and border closures had ground regional travel to a halt. She disclosed that the airline had implemented several other measures including temporary layoffs and reduced working hours. Additionally, LIAT’s Board is said to be negotiating a support package with regional governments that would allow for resumption of a limited schedule in due course.

Gonsalves announces $70m economic stimulus package

The government of St. Vincent and the Grenadines has announced plans for an EC$70 million economic stimulus programme as the nation implements various measures to deal with the impact of COVID-19. The total package of fiscal stimulus and tax relief is slated to top EC $70 million or in excess of 3% of GDP. According to Prime Minister Ralph Gonsalves, the bulk of the revenue for the package will come from 6 sources, including the World Bank, IMF, the United Arab Emirates (UAE), the Bank of St. Vincent and the Grenadines, the Contingency Fund of the Government of St. Vincent and the Grenadines as well as other financial institutions, and bondholders.

S&P downgrades Republic, First Citizens

Global credit rating agency Standard and Poors (S&P) has downgraded two of Trinidad and Tobago’s biggest commercial banks, Republic Bank Ltd and First Citizens, citing tumbling global hydrocarbon prices. This comes just a week after the firm downgraded TT from BBB to BBB-. In a report Wednesday, S&P said it was lowering its long-term and short-term issuer credit ratings on both Republic Bank and First Citizens BBB-/A-3 from BBB/A-2. S&P also revised its trend on TT’s Banking Industry Country Risk Assessment (BICRA) economic risk to negative from stable because it expected a pressure surge on the banks’ asset quality and that business growth would slow as the coronavirus outbreak hits trade and lower oil prices contribute to a deeper economic contraction and increasing unemployment. The company said that although TT’s banks are not heavily exposed to oil companies, the local economy is heavily dependent on the energy sector. As a result, it expects lower hydrocarbon prices will cause TT’s economy to shrink 2.7% for 2020, continuing the contraction in the country’s real GDP per capita over the past several years.

Business News In Brief

$50 million in loans repurposed for COVID-19 fight

As The Bahamas attempts to mitigate the fiscal fallout from the COVID-19 outbreak, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Finance Peter Turnquest said the government is seeking to repurpose existing approved loans from the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) to offset the financial burden of the pandemic. Turnquest said the country could potentially benefit from $50 million through this process. “What we are doing is that we are taking advantage of an offer to repurpose up to 10 percent of outstanding undrawn balances on existing approved loans to repurpose those funds for the COVID-19 fight and response,” he said. In total, The Bahamas has $470 million in approved loans from the IDB. (NG)

CDB Provides US$140 Million for COVID-19 relief

The Caribbean Development Bank (CDB) is making available up to US$140 million to borrowing member countries to mitigate fallout from the COVID-19 pandemic and disasters. CDB President, Warren Smith says the pandemic is likely to result in severe social and economic shocks for the Region. According to Smith, “the US$140 million allocation is the first of a package of assistance that CDB is developing to assist our borrowing member countries to cope with COVID-19. Our financing and technical assistance, during this period, will be directed mainly towards the most vulnerable within our societies and give the highest priority to strengthening social safety nets.” The CDB President continued, “Our goal is to ensure our borrowing member countries get access to appropriate financing during the COVID-19 pandemic and to be their partner in the post-crisis recovery.” (JG)
